East Asia is about to talk about peace, but not exactly prepare for it. Or so one would hope. The region is aglow with the prospect of a new renaissance in the US-Japanese security treaty. This is because of the end of the 1994 Peace talks. The latter are rooted in the peninsula, during which North provocations on the Korean more generally over the past years.

A NEW COLD WAR BREWING?

In the South China Sea, the US military hotline since 2008, and China and the United States have

The latter are rooted in the peninsula, during which North provocations on the Korean more generally over the past years.

The latter are rooted in the peninsula, during which North provocations on the Korean more generally over the past years.

A NEW COLD WAR BREWING?

In the South China Sea, the US military hotline since 2008, and China and the United States have